ATTENTION: You can restrict access to your personal data in the mBank@Net Invest mobile app at any time in the settings of your mobile device! However, you should be aware that if you restrict access, some functions will be disabled, which may cause the mobile app to malfunction.

3. What we use the collected data for

We use, store and process information, including personal data, about you and your device in order to provide you with the services under the General Terms and Conditions for Consumers.

4. Who we share data with

The Mobile App does not communicate or disclose information to third parties, except for information necessary for registration, digitization, payment and processing with financial instruments of transaction data as described in this Privacy Statement.

5. Push notifications and opt-out options

We do not have push notifications in mBank@Net Invest. All notifications can be found in the current tab

6. Security

At Nova KBM, we place emphasis on the security of your personal data. We have taken physical, technical, electronic, organizational and procedural safeguards to prevent unauthorized access to or disclosure of your personal data in accordance with applicable law. We only allow access to your personal data to persons who are authorized to process such data and who need to know it in order to provide you with the service. These persons are bound by confidentiality obligations.

7. Where you can get more information on personal data protection

If you have any questions relating to the protection or processing of your personal data, you can contact the Data Protection Officer, who can be contacted at "dpo@nkbm.si". In order to implement the principle of fair and transparent processing, Nova KBM, as the controller of your personal data, has also prepared General Information on Personal Data Protection, which enables you to obtain all relevant information relating to your personal data in one place.

8. Changes to this Privacy Statement

We reserve the right to change this Privacy Statement at any time in accordance with this Article. If we do, we will post the revised Privacy Statement on our website and mobile app.
